Smoky Mountain Wildflower Photography Class

Focus on Flowers
April 20th-22nd, 2012

We will meet in Gatlinburg TN on Friday, April 20th, at 6 o'clock at the Smoky Mountains National Park Sugarlands Visitor Center by the front door. We will then leave for an evening hike. Saturday will involve hikes in the morning and afternoon, with a break in town for lunch. Sunday, we will have a morning hike that will last till approximately noon.

Class fee per Participant: $100
Transportation, lodging and meals will be on your own.

- Please bring your typical landscape and flower set up. I will be using my 28-80mm, 70-200mm with extension tubes, and an external flash unit for most of my images.
  A tripod is a must!

- We will meet at the Smoky Mountain National Park Visitor Center (Sugarlands, the one just outside Gatlinburg) 6:00PM Friday evening.

- It will sprinkle at some point. Please bring raingear for the light stuff. We will get out of the weather in the heavier rain.

- We will have an itinerary, but will remain flexible to make changes that will enhance the trip.

- We will have breakfast before we leave in the morning (we will leave for the trailhead around 8:00 am), and have lunch around midday. Please feel free to bring snacks during the duration of the day.

- The trails we have chosen are moderate and the pace will be accommodating for the group. Please were appropriate footwear and clothing for the hikes. Attendees should be able to walk over uneven ground, and be able to walk moderate distances

- If you have any questions, please contact Brian by e-mail at brian@brianjorg.com. My cell number is 513-617-2758, however getting a signal in the mountains can be difficult.
