

Happy Holidays

I would like to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season! It has been a while since the last newsletter, as it has been very busy around here. The biggest project was recently getting a book deal for a photography book on Cincinnati. This book should be out in the autumn of 2009. I have been shooting quite a bit to fill some gaps in my portfolio.

I have had time to work on the hikes and trips for next year, and the dates are locked in. I will be partnering with various institutions on these events. I will have all the registration details in the next newsletter after the first of the year. I think we have a nice diversity to choose from. The trips are listed on page 2. I do keep up-to-date information on the website as well.

As always, those who receive this newsletter will get first chance at registration, as I think some of these trips.
