Brian Jorg is an Ohio photographer based in Cincinnati Ohio. Brian has amassed a huge stock photography library over the years of outdoor travel. As a nature photographer, Brian has photographed many federally and state endangered native wildflowers. Brian also works with the propagation of many of these same species of endangered wildflowers for conservation. He also leads many hikes, classes and workshops on location in some of the greatest wildflower locations in North America.

As a wildlife photographer, Brian has traveled to many locations, such as Alaska, Newfoundland, the Yucatan, Kenya East Africa, Peru, the Amazon, and the Galapagos Islands in Ecuador. Brian photographs many of these species on location.

As a stock photographer, Brian has been shooting both film and made the transition to digital photography many years back. He has an extensive slide catalog, as well as over 100,000 digital images. Shooting flora and fauna, Brian's stock photography library has a wealth of subjects.

Brian is also a sports photographer. His sports photography has included such sports as football, baseball, golf, marathons and running, hiking, camping, track and field, basketball, and a host of other sports.

Brian also teaches classes, workshops, and lectures on many outdoor subjects. His background in horticulture and gardening has led him to speak all over the eastern US to many professionals in the horticulture field, Master Gardeners, and homeowners. His digital SLR photography workshops consistently sell out. Brian teaches classroom instruction and workshops, as well as his well attended Great Smoky Mountains National Park Digital Photography Workshop Weekend. This weekend photography workshop shows the beginning digital photographer many tips on wildflower photography in the beautiful Appalachian Mountains.

Brian Jorg is also available for assignment photography as well. Whether it is to photograph a social event, sports, or on site photo shoot, Brian is able to travel to even the most remote locations to get the shot.

Brian also can supply sports photography, outdoor photography, SLR digital photography classes, nature photography, event photography, landscaping presentations, digital stock photography, travel presentations, and horticulture classes. Brian is a nature photographer, Cincinnati photographer, Ohio photography, Ohio stock photography, master gardener presentations, hikes, adventure travel, stock Cincinnati images, wildlife pics, nature images, stock wildlife images, animal images, wildlife pictures, Cincinnati images, landscaping classes, SLR digital workshops, Ohio images, nature pics, wildflower pictures, Kentucky images, Indiana stock images, Florida wildlife images, stock animal pictures and Kentucky pictures.

Brian can also supply Indiana pictures, Florida images, Pennsylvania images, wildflower pictures, environmental images, habitat pictures, bird photography, animal pictures, and Zoo images.

Recreation photography, as well as most sports photography is available. Basketball photography, sports photography, baseball, track and field, rock climbing, yoga, fishing, hunting are also available. Registration for many of Brian's classes and workshops are available through the website. Brian has shot extensively in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Wyoming and other states. Brian has many travel photography classes, master gardener events and workshops scheduled each year.

Brian also can supply photographic art, fine art photos, prints, landscape prints, print photography, and photographic greeting cards. Brian's photographic art prints are available online.
